Product Description

Jungle Trip - Card game, for 2-5 players, from 5 years

Let's go on an adventurous safari to Madagascar! Flying foxes, chameleons, fossas, Madagascar frogs and some cheeky monkeys are guaranteed to cross your path. But only those who use their cards most cleverly will discover the most animals and thus score the most points! In the jungle of Madagascar, the animals compete to see who is the best. The little Madagascar frog obviously finds it difficult to prevail against flying foxes, chameleons and fossas - these are just bigger and have correspondingly higher values on the cards. The players take turns sending the jungle inhabitants to the center, always anxious to have more points than the others and thus decide the round in their favor. The player who uses his cards most cleverly will make the most tricks with his animal troop and win the game in the end. The animal with the highest number wins - but only if there are not several cards with the same animal on the table! Whoever is the first to get 15 tricks finally becomes Madagascar's jungle king.
