Product Description

The fast-paced game of finding the right word! In Taboo, you have to explain the search term to your team without using any of the TABU words yourself, because these are really "taboo"! Who can get his team to guess the word "playlist" without using the words "songs, play, music, favourite and order" in the explanation? This taboo comes up with 212 cards and 848 search terms on pop culture, trends and more. This game calls for imagination and linguistic wit when it comes to giving creative and cleverly chosen clues to explain the term to your own team while the clock is ticking! Whoever pronounces the unpronounceable is mercilessly squeaked out by the opposing team and loses that point. Taboo is suitable for adults and teenagers aged 13 and up and spices up an evening with friends. To play on the go, the card box can be removed and the web-based tools can be used. So Taboo is fun wherever you are!
