Product Description

A long-forgotten temple hides numerous secrets that need to be unlocked. Many are afraid of these secrets, but you can't wait to solve the ancient mysteries of the temple. Although you have arrived at the temple together, your pride drives you to solve the temple's riddles before anyone else!

In Block and Key, you place 3D blocks in a common play area in an attempt to complete your mission cards. The challenge of Block and Key is that your view of the common play area is limited, so you will only ever see the 2D perspective of the 3D play area facing you. In each round, you can either draw new blocks from the supply or place a block on the common area. Afterwards, you may check whether one of your order cards has already been fulfilled, thus earning you points, before you refill your hand. The first person to fulfill the required number of wish cards finishes the game. The points are added up and the winner is chosen.

Attention! Not suitable for children under 36 months!
