Product Description

The floor model is a replica of the French Citroen saloon, which was produced from 1934 to 1957. This vehicle had a light body, so also a high performance torsion bar suspension. The car also had a spacious interior and was controlled by a front-wheel drive system. The car proved to be very easy to handle and was therefore used by the French Army as well as by the German Army of Occupation and by the Free French Forces.
