Product Description

This innovative product meets even the most complex game requirements. It is a compact storage box for a large collection of cards and a perfect companion for game components. The box is large enough for 600 double-sleeved or 800 single-sleeved cards, which are separated with a removable acrylic divider. The Games' Lair 600+ contains four removable compartments for cards and other playing material. The lid can be used as a dice tray.

Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.
