Product Description

DSA Roman - # 131: Salsweiler (DE), 288 pages

Hesinja's mother died in childbirth - her father was brought in by her count, an irascible Bronnjar pillory one freezing cold winter night and froze to death when she was six. Since then, she grew up in the local Travia Temple and was trained as a novice. When she was 16 years old, there was only one thing left to be ordained - Count Joost von Salsweiler, whom she hated, had to release her as a serf. But instead of doing this, he simply takes her into his service as a maid. All of a sudden, Hesinja is confronted with the intrigues at court and unfamiliar new tasks. In trying to fight for her place, she does not notice how she is leaving her own morals more and more behind. But when roaches haunt the village in a harsh winter, she realizes that her entire life of suffering is only a side effect of a gigantic plan of revenge ...

Warning!Not for children under 36 months suitable.
