Product Description

The Tokens' Lair, is the first all-in-one token box that takes the gaming experience to the next level. Packed with innovative features, this compact and incredibly practical box is the perfect addition to the game collection. In the four colourful drawers in the most commonly used game colours, all kinds of tokens, cubes, meeple, tokens and more can be found quickly and easily without having to pull out the drawers. During play, it is possible to maximise the gaming experience with the magnetic function. Each drawer has built-in magnets that allow for easy and individual arrangement on the table, so that the focus is fully on the game and there is no searching for the right piece. But the Tokens' Lair also has a convertible flap that can be effortlessly transformed into a practical dice tray. Strong magnets ensure the box closes precisely and securely, so there's no worry about losing or damaging tokens. Whether it's board games, tabletop games or RPGs, upgrade the gaming system with the Tokens' Lair and experience the future of gaming accessories. Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
