Product Description

Torres Family - Board game, for 2-4 players, from 8 years

The family version of the Game of the Year winner from the year 2000 includes two different variants. In scenario 1, "Who will be the new king?" the players awaits a familiar scenario. In order to impress the king and to be able to follow his succession, the players work to the max. Only those who build the tallest towers and are represented in as many castles as possible have a good chance of winning the throne. The scenario is strongly based on its big brother Torres, but with simplified rules. In scenario 2 "Impress the envoys of the king!" the players seek the closeness of the envoys of the king to show them their buildings. Who builds near an envoy, gets twice the score. However, this is not so easy, because when building you have to pay attention to the color of the fields! Not every tower can be built on any field. And the competition is not sleeping!

Attention! Not suitable for children under 36 months. Legal minimum age: 8, legal maximum age: 99

- Number of players: 2-4
- Age: from 8 years
- Playing time: 30 minutes
