Product Description

Two tough guys on the hunt for villains and scoundrels!

In BEANS BOOM BANG! you experience the adventures of Bud Spencer and Terence Hill yourself and can even retell them from scratch. Take on the role of the director and invent crazy stories or send the crooks on the run with thunderous punches. Right jab, left slap or the infamous steam hammer - everything is there and must be used skilfully at the right time. But beware: if you eat too many beers and sausages, you will quickly end up in the infirmary yourself.

Reaction and memory, paired with 50 story cards and a good dose of creativity make every round of BEANS BOOM BANG! unique.

Entertaining and exciting: BEANS BOOM BANG! is a game packed with action, speed and wacky stories about Bud Spencer and Terence Hill. An absolute must, not only for fans of the powerful duo!
