Product Description

The floor model is a replica of the US F-16 multi-role fighter. At the end of 1970, the total production number of the F16 exceeded 4,000, making it the second highest-produced jet fighter. The F-16CJ is a variant of the fighter aircraft that specialises primarily in SEAD, or Supression of Enemy Air Defenses. This variant has flown over Iraq while monitoring the no-fly zones in the north and south and during Operation Iraqi Freedom.
