Product Description

The model kit of the USS Enterprise from Star Trek Into Darkness in 1:500 scale is an absolute highlight for all fans of the successful film series. The kit consists of a total of 91 parts and is therefore also suitable for younger hobbyists from the age of 12.

The USS Enterprise NCC-1701 from Star Trek Into Darkness has been completely redeveloped and impresses with numerous details and a modern design. The two-part saucer section and the separate command bridge are particularly noteworthy. The deflector and sensor as well as the two-part secondary hull and the multi-part warp nacelles with separate pylons are also exactly reproduced.

The many clear parts, including the Bussard collectors and position lights, are also particularly noteworthy. The model kit is also suitable for lighting (equipment not included), which makes the model even more impressive.

The detailed assembly instructions with painting instructions and the extensive decal for the Enterprise make assembly easy and add the finishing touches to the model. The included display stand allows the model to be attractively displayed.
