Product Description

Delays in the production of the first German main battle tanks led to the use of the Panzerkampfwagen II. After successful missions in Poland and France at the beginning of World War II, it was also used in Russia and North Africa, although it was inferior to the enemy tanks by then. The F version, which was further developed in 1941, had reinforced front and side armour and reached a speed of 40 km/h with a weight of 9.5 tons. Weight it reached a speed of 40 km/h.
