Product Description

The Hawker Hurricane Mk IIb model kit in 1:32 scale is a great kit for all model building enthusiasts from the age of 13. With 118 parts and a length of 305 mm and wingspan of 380 mm, it offers many possibilities for detail design.

The kit is based on a completely new tooling and is one of the most famous versions of the Hawker Hurricane, an aircraft that is often overshadowed by the famous Spitfire, but nevertheless played an important role in the "Battle of Britain".

The armament consists of 12 MG .303 British and the possibility to carry 2 bombs 113 or 227 and/or 8 rockets. The kit comes with a plastic model that is not assembled, illustrated multilingual building instructions and decals. A great kit for anyone interested in World War II history and improving their modelling skills.
