Product Description

A postcard = a parlour game! Volle Scholle is a simple and entertaining dice game for 2 - 4 penguins. Play it yourself or send it as a postcard to your loved ones. Climate change has major consequences for us all. The polar ice caps are also melting. In the postcard game "Full Floe", you try to pull your penguins across the melting ice to the destination as quickly as possible. Let's go! What do you need? Our motto for the postcard games: Anything can be a token! #Conserve resources In addition to our postcard, you will need: 1 dice (e.g. as an app), 2 penguins per player (e.g. pebbles, beans, meeple, etc.), 1 cover (e.g. book, sheet of paper, etc.) And how does it work? Volle Scholle is a simple dice game where you can challenge your luck. With a little tactic and a lucky roll of the dice, you can help your penguins escape quickly. But watch out! If you risk too much, you'll go swimming! Because after each round, the ice melts and the playing field gets smaller and smaller. Penguins that are too slow soon fall into the water and are out of the game. Who can get their penguins across the melting ice to the finish line the fastest? We recommend that you play 3 rounds and see who was able to save the most penguins at the end.
