Product Description

This set on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of Jaguar includes model kits of two legendary vehicles. With faithfully reproduced bodies, multi-part engines, various chrome parts and decals with different registration plates, this set offers a special modelling experience. Features

- 287 parts for a faithful reproduction of the D-Type racing car and the E-Type sports car
- Faithfully reproduced bodywork
- Multi-part engines and various chrome parts for a realistic look
- Decals with different number plates (D, A, CH, F, B, NL, GB, I, USA)
- Base colours and glue included

Just 17 examples of the D-Type racing car could be converted into the road-going sports car XK-SS before the factory fire. The E-Type, introduced in 1961, is considered one of Jaguar's most famous car legends. This set offers the opportunity to recreate both vehicles in detail and experience a piece of British automotive history in your own collection. In addition to the plastic model kits, the scope of delivery also includes illustrated, multilingual building instructions, decals with various registration plates and base colours (Revell Aqua Color) as well as glue (Revell Contacta Professional Mini) and brushes. This set offers everything that model builders and collectors need for a special model building experience.
