Product Description

Attention modelling enthusiasts! The Revell Advent calendar gives you the opportunity to build a piece of the legendary VW T2 camper every day of Advent. In an appealing scale of 1:24 and with 112 parts, this kit is the ideal gift for fans of the classic vehicle and for all those who want to experience a special Advent season. With a length of 193 mm, a width of 75 mm and a height of 127 mm, the model takes on an impressive shape at the end. Recommended for enthusiasts aged 10 and over, the kit offers everything you need to proudly hold the model in your hands until Christmas. This kit is ideal for beginners and young enthusiasts. With the easy-click system, you will experience quick success, as the coloured components are stably connected by simply plugging them together. You can also decorate the model to your liking with the included stickers (decals). It is the perfect introduction to the world of model building for anyone aged 10 and over, and great fun is guaranteed. This kit is ideal for beginners and young enthusiasts.
