Product Description

Using 85 COBI building blocks, you can build a model of the legendary Citroen 2CV Dolly, perfectly reproduced on a scale of 1:35. Thanks to the use of elements specially developed for this car, the shape of the body comes as close as possible to the original. The car is equipped with 4 movable wheels and imprints of important details. Citroen is 11 cm long and 4.5 cm high. The set includes a plate with the model name and the CITROEN logo from the period! Printed licence plates also feature the model name. The Citroen 2CV Dolly version is a unique and iconic car that was launched in 1985. This model is characterised by its distinctive, classic design, which impresses with its simplicity and charm. Dolly was a limited edition that gained popularity due to its unique design. A two-colour body was chosen. The roof and wheel arches were given contrasting colours for a unique look. Under the bonnet of the 2CV Dolly were different engine variants depending on the year of construction. Despite the modest engine power, this car gained a reputation for reliability and economy. The Citroen 2CV Dolly is not only a vehicle, but also an automotive icon that has survived many years after its debut. Today, it enjoys recognition among collectors and classic car enthusiasts and is often an object of desire for those who value unique style and automotive history. The Cobi Youngtimer Collection and Historic Collection includes classic cars from the biggest automotive brands. All cars are designed in 1:35 scale and form a coherent collection, perfect for children, teenagers and adults who are passionate about history and motoring. Build history, brick by brick!
