Product Description

Be the first player to reach the throne by conquering all the cities with the help of your armies and dragons. But watch out! Enemies will try to attack you! Each player plays as a House of the Dragon character and gets their own resource board. When it's your turn, play cards from your hand to move, attack or besiege a city. To attack, play cards to add more armies and roll the dice to see if you can conquer the city from your opponent. The first player with 21 points wins the game! Warning: Not suitable for children under 36 months. Small parts.
