Product Description

The new VOLVO VN 780 tractor unit, a further development of the NH 12 series, is aimed specifically at the American market, where the previous version has already proved popular and more than competitive with traditional US trucks. The vehicle is characterised by a spacious driver's cab with sleeping facilities and all the other comforts required for the long-distance journeys typical of the US market, and has been completely redesigned. Attention! Not suitable for children under 14 years of age.
