Product Description

Born at the end of the 18th century, the music box solidified abstract music into a tangible work of art and testified to the history of human civilisation for more than 300 years, so ROKR designed the Mechanical Music Box series that accommodates "time" in a small "space". The elegant and beautiful cello with its traditional, classical, first-class appearance has always been loved by people, so ROKR has integrated the cello into the "mechanical music box" and designed this 3D wooden puzzle "Magic Cello Music Box". This cello music box puzzle in romantic retro style is mainly a combination of cello and magic book, the hollow structure of the case shows the internal gear, a six-petalled flower is decorated on it, a classic European pattern is engraved on the plate, very retro aesthetic. The product is also interspersed with numerous magical elements such as magic books, little witches and cats, giving people a retro and mysterious visual experience. In addition, the basis of the magic book shape, which is inspired by the story of the "father of the cello" Pablo Casals, and the main appeal to the self-playing cello.
