Product Description

Women's power on the racetrack The name "Iron Dames" refers to a special project created and led by Deborah Mayer, entrepreneur, driver and Ferrari ambassador, to support women in motorsport. In 2021, the Iron Dames competed in the Ferrari Challenge, the GT World Challenge Europe, the Italian Formula 4 Championship and, for the first time, the FIA World Endurance Championship with the Ferrari 488 GT3 under the starting number 85. Controls in female hands With the black and pink Ferrari 488 GT3 "Iron Dames, No.85", all the female Carreraristi among you can prove what you can do on the racetrack in your living room - your male friends and family members will only see the rear lights when you race across the finish line. The vehicle can also be converted to digital using a separate digital decoder.
