Product Description

The eye-catcher for enthusiasts! Perfect for nostalgics: a wild ride into the past with the legendary BMW 320 Turbo Flachbau from the Oppitzhauser team. Austria's veteran racing driver Karl Oppitzhauser used his example of the flat-bodied BMW in all kinds of racing series and still owns the vehicle today. The particularly elegant design with pinstripes makes the BMW with the starting number 20 a real eye-catcher on any race track! Highlight in the race! The BMW 320 Turbo Flachbau "Oppitzhauser, No. 20" offers authentic driving behaviour and handles perfectly in every bend. On the Carrera EVOLUTION racetrack, it competes against up to 5 other opponents at the same time. The vehicle from the 80s has been produced on a scale of 1:32 with great attention to detail and immediately catches the eye of every racing enthusiast. Equipped with front and rear lights, it looks just like the original. The vehicle can also be converted to digital by means of a separate digital decoder.
