Product Description

Race over the long distance "Race to Victory" is the motto of the new Carrera DIGITAL 132 set. The brand new KTM X-BOW GT2 "True Racing, No.16" in orange paintwork is on the starting line of the 8 metre long race track, which not only stands out with its extraordinary technology, but also with its purist design. Its opponent is the bright red Mercedes-AMG GT3 with the number 20 and Carrera lettering, with which the SPS automotive performance team was able to secure fifth place in the 12-hour race at Paul Ricard. Large vehicles with powerful engines. The slot car vehicles with front, rear and brake lights offer you and your friends authentic driving pleasure. On the race track, you can compete with your best friends on the challenging circuit with high-speed straights, tricky bends and double points and find out who is the best at the hand controller!
