Product Description

Race debut for driver and car Schubert Motorsport fielded two brand-new BMW M4 GT3s in the 2022 GT Masters. The car with starting number 10 was driven by 19-year-old Niklas Krütten from Trier and 24-year-old Briton Ben Green, who both celebrated their GT Masters debuts in 2022. With two victories, two pole positions and two fastest race laps, it was a successful debut for both the driver and the new car. Eye-catcher for at home At home on the Carrera racetrack, the faithfully crafted vehicle makes quite an impression, and not just because of its stylish look in black with green accents. The individually codeable and digitally controllable model, which is equipped with front, rear and brake lights, is predestined for full throttle!
