Product Description

Technically adeptThe KTM X-BOW GTX offers numerous new technical highlights, improved ergonomics and operability and a revolutionary safety standard. With this car, victory seems pre-programmed - yet the Czech Marek Rybnicek had to forgo a race at the European Hillclimb Championship in Sternberk in his KTM X-BOW GTX "Liqui Moly, No.104" after a controversial decision by the FIA.Ready for action on the racetrackNothing stands in the way of the KTM X-BOW GTX "Liqui Moly, No.104" on your home Carrera racetrack - how well the car masters the track depends solely on your skills with the hand controller. The vehicle can be digitally controlled and individually coded and can therefore be customised to the driver's abilities.
