Product Description

With a classic design to victory With its first appearance on European soil at the Creventic 24H Series, the new KTM X-BOW GTX 2021 was able to clinch its next victory immediately after its success at the Japanese Super Taikyu Series. Did the legendary Felbermayr colours play a role in this? After all, the blue and yellow racing car is predestined for endurance racing and was used for many years in the 24 Hours in Full success for the pilots on the hand controller On the big race track, Horst Felbermayr, the boss of the Upper Austrian company, sits at the wheel himself, but on the Carrera race track you have to prove your skills on the hand controller yourself. Will the legendary design of the true-to-original model also bring you luck? Thanks to digital control and equipped with front, rear and brake lights, nothing stands in the way of your triumph.
