Product Description

New vehicle for the champion The Mercedes AMG GT3 Evo is a modern classic of touring car racing. The Carrera DIGITAL 132 Mercedes-AMG GT3 Evo "Mercedes-AMG Team Winward M. Götz" is the current vehicle of the 2021 DTM champion Maximilian Götz. The champion also competed in the 2022 DTM season with the new vehicle and new team in the colours pink, white and blue, but was unable to build on the high from the previous season. A winner through and through The Mercedes AMG GT3 Evo is also a real eye-catcher at home. With prototypical adjustments to the front, radiator grille and details at the rear, the new 1:32 scale model is more realistic than ever before. Even the headlights are more than just decoration, as the front, rear and brake lights are fully functional and light up the home racetrack. The true-to-original model has the option of individually adjusting the braking and acceleration behaviour and can be digitally controlled to guarantee maximum racing fun for everyone.
