Product Description

The Ford Capri was not only a popular vehicle on public roads - the race track was also its home for a long time. The Capri was particularly successful in the German racing championship. In 1981, the Würth-Zakspeed team achieved victory in the overall standings with the Ford Capri. Klaus Ludwig won 10 of the 14 races and was the clear overall winner in the end. In 1982, the Capri was entered in 4 races before being replaced by the successor model, the Ford C100. The 1:32 scale Carrera DIGITAL 132 Ford Capri Zakspeed Turbo "Würth-Zakspeed-Team, No.2" will soon be racing around the slot racing track at home and taking its own turns. Equipped with front lights as well as rear and brake lights, the slot car can also take part in long-distance races in small format right into the dark. The vehicle can be coded and digitally controlled. The Ford Capri impresses with ultimate racing fun for lovers of historic vehicles.
