Product Description

Here comes the absolute eye-catcher on your Carrera GO!!! racetrack: stylishly painted in the US colours red, white and blue with the eye-catching stars on the bonnet, the Carrera GO!!! Dodge Viper is modelled on its big original down to the smallest detail. Further accents are provided by the splashes of green colour in the starting number - the No.93, on the rear-view mirrors and on the spoiler. With this cool styling, the 2015 SRT Viper "Ben Keating Team, No.93" will not only make the hearts of fans of the US racing scene beat faster! Prove your talent with the hand controller and race around the living room track with this racing car. Exciting and action-packed races with your friends are pre-programmed. This Carrera GO!!! car is the perfect introduction to the Carrera racing scene for all young racing drivers aged 6 and over. The Dodge Viper is a classic in American car and racing history. The racer was the most powerful car from the US car manufacturer in the 1990s and 2000s and impressed numerous fans on the grandstands of the racetracks and behind the wheel. The mighty powerhouse brings up to 408 hp to the track and plenty of speed to the race. With the 2015 SRT Viper "Ben Keating Team, No.93", you can live the American racing dream on the Carrera GO!!! racetrack. The sleek model in white with the red and blue racing stripes is also a real eye-catcher when you compete in the Living Room Cup.
