Product Description

Rally size for at home Off you go to hot races on the mud track!The Carrera RC Red Bull Rallycross looks exactly like its famous role model, which races around rally tracks all over the world. At home, young track champions aged 14 and over can set off on their own adventures and show off their driving skills off the tarmac at speeds of up to 25 km/h. The approx. 26.5 cm long, licensed model is equipped with a metal gearbox and racing body and is therefore ready for use on any surface. The suspension and pneumatic tyres complement the simple Digital Proportional Control technology and make driving very easy. The Red Bull Rallycross shows what it can do for up to 20 minutes before the LiFePo4 battery needs to be recharged. The charging time is reduced to 90 minutes with the included USB quick-charging cable.
