Product Description

The Rokr wooden puzzle is a 1:1 replica of a classic 19th century sound recording device with a distinctive horn speaker and a rotating sound recording disc. The end result can be a perfect vintage presentation on your desk. The ROKR gramophone is powered by a hand generator and is equipped with a needle, a flat disc, a volume control and a flange bearing. Once assembled, you can actually turn the handle to play music! (Suitable for most 7"/10" vinyl) The build kit includes clear instructions, pre-cut wood panels, all accessories, a 7-inch vinyl, wax and sandpaper. No glue or battery required. The premium package is a unique gift for any occasion such as a birthday, holiday or business meeting. Large project with 424 practical toys. It's a challenge for eyes and hands, but the end result is worth the time. Best hands-on activity to keep the family together. Retro gramophone is a collector's item for vintage/antique object lovers. Creative wooden puzzles for adults, cool gift for parents, boys/girls aged 14+. This ROKR 3D wooden puzzle LKB01 is a classic hand-spinning gramophone inspired by Thomas Edison's original. Retro style, designed with a vintage record player. It is not only a wooden model, but also a real gramophone that can play records. Note: Products with electrical plugs are designed for use in the USA. Sockets and voltage are different internationally and an adapter or converter may be required to use this product at your destination. Please check compatibility before purchasing. This gramophone can be played without a battery after winding. A record with three pieces of music is included: The Merry Gent, Memory Of A Dance and The Giant Killers. And it also supports other 7-inch and 10-inch records. The volume can be controlled manually using the knob. We have also developed a micro USB port that can be connected to an external power supply to reduce the intensity of the hand crank. This antique gramophone wooden model with beautiful melodies takes you back to the 19th century. It's a great, impressive 3D wooden puzzle gift for people of all ages. Notes: Due to customs regulations, the wax may not be included in the package. Wax: You can use regular candles, crayons, beeswax, etc. ROBOTIME, a group of always full of enthusiasm for progress and explorers.
