Product Description

He's 3 million light years away from home... and needs your help to get back! E.T. the alien has been left behind, and now agents are after him! In this co-operative adventure game, you take on the roles of Elliott, Gertie, Michael and Greg and work together to send E.T. home. Ride your bike through the neighbourhood and use shortcuts and ramps to avoid the agents. Collect objects that E.T. can use to build a communication device and call his ship. Then you have to get E.T. to the clearing before his heart light goes out!
