Product Description

Children's game by Halli Galli author Haim Shafir. A ride on the witch's broomstick is great fun for everyone - witch and animal alike. But someone has dawdled again and missed the take-off. Who is it this time? The two animal dice show which animals need to be found. Found them? Then turn over the corresponding cards and, with a bit of luck, end up with the most cards from your fellow players. With sturdy playing cards, specially designed for children's hands. How to play Witch, Animal, Who's Missing? MBE3. The players deal out all 24 cards evenly and place them face up in front of them. They roll the dice in turn and then look for cards that show the animals on the dice. Whoever finds such cards turns them over. It's not a bet! The player who has turned over all their cards ends the round and is rewarded with all the other players' cards that have not yet been turned over. A total of three rounds are played. From the second round onwards, the players have different numbers of cards. The player or players who have the most cards at the end of the third round win.
