Product Description

With the Feldherr Organiser for "Dice Throne: Season Two", you can keep order between the duelists. In "Dice Throne", you can expect nerve-wracking battles that require your full concentration. Whether you leave the duel as the winner depends not only on the luck of the dice but also on the right strategy. To make sure you don't lose track at the crucial moment, there is a matching Feldherr Organiser for all battle boxes in Season Two of Dice Throne. The organiser helps you to neatly sort the game material for 2 players and store it clearly in your board game box. We have dedicated ourselves to keeping your board game box tidy so that you can concentrate fully on the duel. 2 plastic token holders help you to organise your game material. Each character has their own tray, which prevents unwanted mix-ups of cards and game material in future. Tedious pre-sorting is also a thing of the past. The clear structure of the inserts saves you time that you can invest in the game. The inserts can be used as a playing aid for setting up the Combat Points and Health Dials. All cards also fit into the trays with a protective cover. Larger tokens have an additional compartment under the CP Dial and Health Dial. The game instructions, Hero Board and Hero Leaflet can be stored under or on top of the plastic inserts.
