Product Description

For safe storage of the stretch goals from the Kickstarter campaign in the Warlord Box - Includes Flex Cross Band blue. The second wave of the "Lords of Hellas" Kickstarter campaign is bringing even more gods, heroes and monsters to the shores of Ancient Greece. To ensure that you can still keep an overview and the wonderful miniatures reach the gaming table undamaged, we have the matching foam set as an insert for the Warlord Box. From Kronos to Hades to Chiron - all the figures are securely packed in foam. The custom-fit cut ensures that the miniatures remain securely in place even when travelling. In addition to the delicate details, this also protects the colours of painted figures from abrasion and scratches. The second mat is used to store the small miniatures, such as the heroes, hoplites and priests. Five compartments are reserved for the cards, one for the small cards and four for the large cards. Finger-wide recesses make it easier to remove the stacks. The cards also fit here with sleeves. The remaining compartments help you to sort the markers, tokens and other small game materials. A matching foam lid completes the all-round carefree package for the Warlord Box. The larger game components - the Atlantis game board, the army and hero boards, the fleet sheet, the Kronos sheet, the underworld sheet, the monster cards, the secret envelope and the booklets - are stored on the cover or under the inserts. This means that all miniatures are safely packed, the game material is neatly stowed away and the contents of your box are optimally prepared for transport.
