Product Description

Feldherr foam set to protect the miniatures in the original game box. On the orders of His Majesty, the Emperor of China, you are to build a wall. 10000 Li long, it should not only keep out the wild hordes of the north, but also make the gods tremble before the power of the emperor. With "The Great Wall", Awaken Realms takes you back to the time of ancient China. You can be part of one of mankind's greatest construction projects. In addition to the right organisation, safety should not be neglected. Bent swords or broken quills could have a negative impact on morale. We can't improve working conditions, but we can help protect your 96 fantastically designed miniatures. With the matching Feldherr foam set, your figures can be stored and transported perfectly protected in the basic game box.
