Product Description

On your journey, you visit the fascinating Disney worlds of your childhood. But the Heartless threaten their beauty and magic. Their perfidious plan is to devour the worlds and plunge them into chaos. With the Feldherr foam set for Talisman: Kingdom Hearts, your board game box is guaranteed to remain free from the chaotic influence of the Heartless. You protect your figures and keep your game material organised at the same time. Armed in this way, you can face the darkness. The set comes with two foam inserts to prevent the key sword from bending. Whether Sora, Riku or Goofy, each figure has its own compartment. The customised cut guarantees a secure fit for your miniatures. This means that nothing can slip or bump into each other during transport through magical Disney worlds. The soft, fine-pored foam protects delicate parts from breaking off. The colours of painted models are also protected from damage such as ugly scratches and chipping paint. After the initial care of your models, we turn our attention to your play material. There are additional compartments in the foam inserts for this purpose. In the lower insert, you can store the six stat boards in 2 large compartments. The set also comes with two plastic trays, each with 3 compartments. In addition to the tokens, you can also neatly organise cards here. How exactly you sort your tokens and cards is up to you. Of course, your cards also fit into the card compartments with protective sleeves. Cover the top foam insert with the foam lid provided. This protects your miniatures from all sides and nothing can fall out of the compartments.
