Product Description

The popular board game Gloomhaven has hundreds of tokens, discs, cards and other small game materials. With our foam set for the original board game box, you can finally organise and safely store everything. On top of that, there's a FREE magnetic box including a matching insert for the 18 Gloomhaven miniatures. So you can keep track of everything at all times and your models get the protection they deserve! Three customised inserts for the board game box provide an overview of your game materials. One insert is reserved for cards, sheets, sealed envelopes and HP/XP dials. You can store tokens, discs, plastic stands and standees in two further inserts. This keeps everything together at all times and minimises the risk of misplacing your character tokens or plastic stands. The three inserts for the board game box are designed to be placed next to the character tuck boxes in the game box. The inserts and the Character Tuck Boxes sit firmly in the board game box without anything slipping out of place. Our magnetic box contains a custom-fit insert for the 18 Gloomhaven miniatures. This means that your great models are sure not to get a hair out of place. We also pack two matching foam lids on top - one for the board game box and one for the magnetic box. This means that nothing can fall out of the inserts, even if the bus driver has had a bad day.
