Product Description

Even Magnus the Red and his troops need to rest from time to time. Our double-size storage box offers the one-eyed Primarch and many other Thousand Sons miniatures a safe home and allows you to store your treasures in a space-saving way. The foam insert for Magnus the Red has a customised compartment for the Demon Primarch of Tzeentch. Surrounded by fine-pored foam, the magnificent figure is optimally protected from damage - delicate parts such as the wings remain intact and any paint applied remains undamaged. Each of the other 4 compartments of the insert is 60 mm long x 51 mm wide x 115 mm deep. This makes them ideal for other miniatures from the Thousand Sons command staff, such as the Scarab Occult Terminators or the Exalted Sorcerors. The inlay for the armour offers a large compartment for a large GamesWorkshop armour such as a Chaos Land Raider. Two further compartments are suitable for the safe storage of Rhinos, for example. The mat also has 2 compartments with a triangular base. You can safely store trikes, for example, in these compartments. The 3 other compartments on the insert are ideal for storing tall miniatures such as standard bearers.
