Product Description

The Mercedes-AMG GT3 Evo in the classic flame design of the Sunenergy Racing Team with the number 75 took part in the 12 Hours of Bathhurst. The race is a classic among racing teams and enjoys great popularity worldwide. The Mercedes-AMG GT3 Evo "Sunenergy Racing, No. 75" presents itself with a red-hot flame print and makes quite an impression. The Carrera EVOLUTION Mercedes AMG GT3 Evo "Sunenergy Racing, No. 75" Bathhurst 2022 is also red-hot on the racetrack at home. With the eye-catching flame design of the Sunenergy team, the vehicle is a real eye-catcher on your racetrack. The front and rear lights of this vehicle light up, making it easy to recognise at all times, even on a dark track. The Carrera car can also be converted to digital using a separate digital decode and offers unmistakable driving fun for young and old. Thanks to the advanced and beginner modes, the vehicle can be customised to suit personal driving skills.
