Product Description

With the Sword & Sorcery expansion "Vastaryous' Lair", you not only get some of the strongest enemies of the Talonian Coast, but also impressive miniatures for the Drakonians and their Dark Majesty. To ensure that they remain as impressive and that the accessories are neatly stowed away, we have the matching Feldherr foam inlay for your board game box. The large compartment of the inlay is customised for the Master Enemy figure. Thanks to the miniature-precise cut, the figure remains securely in place even when transporting the box. This not only protects the sensitive parts of Vastaryou, such as wings and claws, from breakage, but also protects the colours of the painted figure from abrasion and scratches. There are also custom-fit compartments for the five Drakonians, so that they are also stored neatly. You can use the remaining compartments to sort the game material. The cards have two compartments, a narrow, elongated one for the large Enemy cards and one for the small cards. Both sizes fit both with and without sleeves. Finger-wide recesses make it easier to remove the cards. You sort the tokens into the two remaining compartments. A matching foam cover completes the all-round supply of your "Sword & Sorcery: Vastaryous' Lair" box. Place the large cards, the map tiles and the booklets on the cover. This ensures that all miniatures are safely packed, the game material is neatly stowed away and the contents of your box are optimally equipped for transport.
