Product Description

All 19 Stormcast Eternals miniatures safely stored in 2 customised foam inserts. Be it the impressive Lord-Arcanum on his Gryph-Charger, the sorceress Knight-Incantor with staff and soul vial or the Sequisitors armed with stormhammers. They all need a safe place away from the battlefields. And that's exactly what we offer you and your miniatures with this foam set. Two large foam inserts provide Sigmar's warriors with a safe haven after the battle. All miniatures are neatly organised in compartments specially made for them. Softly wrapped in foam, sensitive parts such as the aether staff of Lord-Arcanum or the storm blades of the Evocators remain optimally protected. Annoying bending is prevented and the colours of painted miniatures do not flake off. There are also 20 free compartments on the second insert for additional miniatures or game material. This leaves room for future expansions.
