Product Description

A starter kit to get to know and love the Historical Collection by COBI! In the box you will find everything you need to build the history brick by brick.

The 105 mm howitzer was standard equipment for German field artillery units during the Second World War. It was also used in the Wespe vehicle. The howitzer entered service in 1935 and was adapted for horse traction. Despite the creation of more modern designs at the turn of the 1930s and 1940s, it remained in continuous use until the end of the Second World War.

The howitzer model was developed in 1:35 scale to match the rest of the COBI Historical Collection. It has a movable barrel and a bed on wheels with splayed tails. The set includes a figure of a German artilleryman who is also armed with a P08 Parabellum pistol. The set includes a plate with the name of the model. The set completes the World War II collection, designed for lovers of history, military technology and lovers of block modelling of the highest quality!

Caution. Not suitable for children under 3 years as small parts may be swallowed. Danger of suffocation!
