Product Description

Welcome to the world of luxury hotels! Build dream hotels that others simply have to stay in. The more you build, the richer you become. Will you end up owning everything? Or will you lose a fortune? The cult classic family game Hotel is back! To mark its 50th anniversary, the 2024 version is being released in a chic retro design, but with the same ruthless rules. Buy plots of land, build luxury hotels and let the game board grow bit by bit with impressive 3D buildings. Demand top prices from your opponents and keep investing. But beware! If you run out of money, hotels and properties, you will go bankrupt. The winner is the last player still in the game after everyone else has gone bankrupt.
