Product Description

Crafty bandits have stolen all the gold in Mountain Valley! Now they're escaping by train. They have hidden the gold in the luggage of the other passengers. Sam, the marshal's son, calls you for help. You get into your stagecoach immediately so as not to let them escape. Use your skill and cunning to save the treasure of Mountain Valley! In the co-operative children's game Kids Express, you get into your stagecoach to help Sam, the marshal's son, save the treasure of Mountain Valley. In the game, you jump onto the moving 3D train and try to grab as many pieces of luggage as possible and stow them in your carriage. If the bandits try to stop you, grab Sam's slingshot and flick it to send them back to their hiding place. At the end of the game, the saved luggage belongs to you and all the luggage in the hiding place belongs to the bandits. To win against the bandits, you must have more pieces of luggage than they do. Throw yourself into the adventure and show the bandits!
