Product Description

Feldherr organiser made of plastic for sorting all the game contents of the "Race for the Galaxy" basic game (Revised 2nd Edition) - Less time to ponder, more time to play. All you need to build a space empire are cards and victory point chips. At least in "Race for the Galaxy". You use them to fulfil complex tasks, colonise worlds and develop advanced technologies that will leave you breathless. Keeping track of everything is not that easy. This is where the Feldherr Organiser, suitable for the basic game box, comes into play. It keeps your game material neatly organised and prevents you from losing track and your game box from sinking into chaos.
