Item no.: 380510 shipping weight: 0.10 kg Manufacturer: Feldherr

Product Description

To safely store and transport a Toxicrene model of the Tyranids12 razor-sharp tentacles that lash out incessantly and toxic clouds of spores from their back vents that crawl under even the best protective gear and thickest armour and eat away at their victims from the inside. Just the right accompaniment for your Tyranid pack. The matching Feldherr foam insert for your miniature is available here to ensure that the tentacles arrive on the battlefield in full and razor-sharp form. The Toxicrene model with its delicate tentacles is safely stored in the large, precisely cut compartment. Thanks to the precise cut and the high-quality, soft foam, the sensitive details of your figure are optimally protected from damage. The figure does not slide around during transport and the colours of the painted miniature are spared scratches and abrasion. You can use the four rectangular compartments to store additional miniatures of your choice. They are suitable for Tyranid models the size of the Zoanthropes or the Tyranid Guard, for example. 4 compartments Dimensions- 2 compartments: 112 mm long x 60 mm wide x 115 mm deep- 2 compartments: 75 mm long x 55 mm wide x 115 mm deepDetails- Full-size foam
