Product Description

A dark threat rises over Middle-earth, driving more and more inhabitants from their homes and forcing them to wander the dangerous lands in search of protection and shelter. A simple escort mission for the heroes to escort a group of wanderers to their new home soon turns out to be a far more dangerous task, pitting them against a menacing force in the wilds of Rhovanion. In the campaign expansion The Lord of the Rings: The Card Game - Ered Mithrin, 1 to 4 players explore the Wildlands of Middle-earth in search of a dragon that is terrorising the area. In a campaign spanning 9 scenarios - in which you can also experience each scenario as a stand-alone adventure - you must confront Bilwisen, explore the vast lands of Wilderland and prepare for the all-important battle against the dragon itself! This expansion contains all scenarios from the original expansion The Wilds of Rhovanion and the Ered Mithrin cycle, as well as new campaign cards.
