Product Description

Game Shell - Case, 250+ cards, Black

The Game Shell is a portable case for a variety of uses. It holds up to 250 double-sleeved cards, tokens or even complete small games. The outer material is made of hard-wearing and durable nylon with a premium structure. The case has a reinforced handle and two zips that are concealed and protected by the outer material. Inside, the Game Shell offers an accessory compartment as well as 2 adjustable dividers that allow a completely free division according to individual needs and preferences.

Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
