Product Description

The Unsullied have the most difficult training programme of all armies. Only about one in three survive to the end. Those who do make it are swordsmen of unparalleled skill. Although they tend to be lightly armoured compared to most Western swordsmen, this does not mean that they are not strong or effective on the battlefield. When combined with an officer, their skills are even more enhanced as they trade blow for blow with each enemy.

The unit box A Song of Ice & Fire - Swordmaster of the Unsullied provides House Targaryen players with an effective melee unit on the field. Their melee attacks hit the weak points of the enemy's armour and grant numerous bonuses. The officer unit's attachment increases their strengths and trades wounds with the enemy when they are attacked. Thus, this unit can wound the enemy in both attack and defence.

Caution: Not suitable for children under 36 months.

- Number of players: 2
